PROJECT BRIEF

Set along Colombia's Caribbean coast, Hilton Santa Marta opens onto sweeping sea views with the beach just steps away. Framed by the peaks of the Sierra Nevada and within reach of the ancient ruins of Tayrona National Park, the hotel pairs the energy of a storied port city with the calm of palm-lined shores.

Outdoor living is at the heart of the experience here. HIGOLD furnishings shape the terraces, poolside lounges and open-air dining spaces into refined retreats — weatherproof yet effortlessly elegant, built to hold their finish under sun, salt air and sea breeze.

From contemporary Colombian dining to versatile event spaces, every setting is designed to draw guests outside. HIGOLD's clean lines and enduring materials let the Caribbean landscape take center stage, turning each open-air moment into an invitation to linger.
