PROJECT BRIEF

On the verdant island of Corfu, where the Ionian breeze drifts through fragrant pine forests and the sea glows a deep azure, Ikos Dassia unfolds across twenty-five lush acres of gardens and glittering pools. This is a sanctuary of effortless luxury — terrace restaurants opening onto endless sea views, refined suites, and the golden sands of a private bay, all wrapped in the timeless heritage of Greek mythology and a distinctly cosmopolitan calm.

HIGOLD outdoor furniture takes its natural place within this setting. Each piece is chosen to balance sculptural elegance with everyday comfort, framing the resort's open-air terraces and poolside lounges with quiet sophistication. Weather-resilient and meticulously crafted, the collections invite guests to linger — to read, to dine, to watch the light shift across the water.

The result is an atmosphere where style and function become inseparable. HIGOLD does not simply furnish these spaces; it elevates them, completing the seamless dialogue between architecture, landscape and the slow rhythm of a Mediterranean day.
