PROJECT BRIEF

Set within a beautifully restored historic building in the Netherlands, Restaurant Graaf ter Horst is far more than a place to dine. Steeped in the rich heritage of its surroundings, it invites guests to slow down and savour the moment — whether over a light bite and a drink or a leisurely dinner framed by remarkable views.

The heart of the experience is the terrace, where HIGOLD outdoor furniture transforms the open air into a refined extension of the dining room. Plush, generously proportioned loungers offer a place to unwind, while elegant terrace chairs paired with matching tables bring effortless comfort and a quietly luxurious sense of style.

Every HIGOLD piece is chosen for the seamless balance of form and function it delivers. Weather-ready and impeccably crafted, the collection elevates the atmosphere of Graaf ter Horst — creating an inviting, sophisticated setting where history, hospitality and design come together in perfect harmony.
